YOUR SHIP – MARE FAN FRYSLAN

The MARE VAN FRYSLÂN was built in 1960 as a freight ship and was fully converted and renovated in 2006 and has been used since 2007 as a beautiful, almost extravagant, three-mast schooner on Dutch waters. Facilities: On the lower deck there is a saloon with wooden paneling (air-conditioned) which provides a warm stylish ambiance. Next to the saloon one can find the wheelhouse with bar, music and video equipment. This room is fitted with large, panoramic windows which offer a breathtaking view over the water. The vessel has 14 outer cabins: 12 comfortable 2-bed cabins (floor area of about 10 m<sup>2</sup> with 2 floor-level single beds 90 x 200 cm), 1 suite with a small corner sitting area and a flat screen TV (floor area of about 10 m<sup>2</sup>) as well as one 1-bed cabin (floor area of about 7 m<sup>2</sup>), all with a private shower/WC to make your time onboard a pleasure (it is also possible to arrange to have 3 beds – a Pullman bed/fold-down bed – in all twelve 2-bed cabins, as well as in the suite). All cabins have a ventilation system. The wooden upper deck offers adequate seating, an outdoors bar with a drinks dispensing plant and a grill, the control station, a Jacuzzi as well as space for the bicycles. The sail can be operated either by hand or electrically. There is a WLAN connection (free of charge) available throughout the whole ship (not always available on sea).

ARRIVAL IN AMSTERDAM

1. Arrival by plane (Schiphol Airport)

The airport has a very good train connection with the Central Station of Amsterdam: Saturdays approximately 8 x per hour, travel time around. 20 minutes. The train costs € 3,80 (Jan. 2011 price). Tickets can be bought at the ticket machines in the airport terminal (NS train station). Travel planner for the Dutch Railway (NS) www.ns.nl

2. Arrival by car / parking in Amsterdam:

Arrival by car

From all directions: you drive on Motorway Centrum Ring Amsterdam (A10), until you reach Motorway Ring North (Noord).

For docking place Sumatrakade Java Eiland: take exit S114 and drive through the "Piet Hein" tunnel, over the "Piet Heinkade" (see map with docking places), until you reach the docking places. For the other docking places this information is on request available.

Please drive first to the ship and deposit your luggage and (if applicable) your bike, and then drive to the parking location.

Our parking recommendation (cars only) – Park + Ride P+R ZEEBURG. Parking rates for a week: EUR 98,00* (discount fare)

Amsterdam offers a parking location, at Zeeburgereiland, P+R ZEEBURG, located near the centre. We have had many satisfied customers using this parking. A tram/city train will be waiting to take you into the city, free ride for max 2 persons, while your car is safely parked in a supervised parking lot. P+R Zeeburg is the ideal parking for all our customers, travelling a week with one of our ships. Pre-reservations are not possible nor necessary: over the past years we have had no complaints about lack of space. If you have a navigation device in your car, simply head for „Zuiderzeeweg 46a, Amsterdam“. The parking facilities are clearly indicated on the A10 ring road; simply follow the signs P+R ZEEBURG and take exit S114. Before entering the Piet-Hein-Tunnel take a left turn.

*: How does it work? Take a parking card at the entrance. Do not use a credit card at the entrance, as this will not entitle you to a discount. Give your parking card to the attendant and ask for the P+R discount. The discount rate of €8,00 per 24 hours is valid for a maximum of four consecutive days, or 96 hours. After 96 hours, the discount will become void, and you pay the normal parking rate appr. € 22,00/day. The attendant will provide you with up to five OV-chip cards for public transport. In February 2010 400 additional parking spaces have been created next to the existing parking. More information:

3. Arrival by train

The docking place Sumatrakade / Java Eiland is approx. 4 km from the Central Railway Station; we recommend to take city bus 42 (GVB) from Central Station, direction KNSM-laan and leave the bus at bus stop Tosaristraat (please ask the bus driver).

Saturday departures every 12-15 minutes, duration of tour 10 minutes, price approx. € 2,60 p.p. (one way).

Taxi cabs are located in front of the Central Station (Stationsplein) and Schiphol Airport. Amsterdam Taxis are not always reliable, unfortunately and often overpriced. Therefore: Try to fix a price in advance. Target: a single trip for 2 people + luggage from the Central Station to the docking place at the Sumatrakade should cost no more than approx. € 14,00 - 18,00.

RENTAL BICYCLES

TOUR PROGRAM :

Day 1 (Sat)

Amsterdam

Everyone finds their own way to Amsterdam, the capital city of the Netherlands. Embarkation from 4 pm. In the evening the skipper Joris will join you for an aperitif, introduce you to crew and ship and will explain many things worth knowing about the journey, the ship and also about safety measures to be taken onboard. You will spend the first night onboard in Amsterdam.

Day 2 (Sun)

Amsterdam – Enkhuizen (sailing)

Enhuizen – Den Oever, a cycling tour of about 45 km/28 miles

A sailing trip from Amsterdam to Enkhuizen. You will begin your first cycling tour in this pretty harbour town with its historic old city. You cycle along the IJsselmeer coast up to Den Oever with small fishing harbours well worth seeing along the way.

Day 3 (Mon)

Den Oever – island of Texel (sailing)

Roundtrip cycling tour on the island of Texel (10-60 km)

A cruise onboard ship in the morning from Den Oever to the island of Texel with varied landscapes and picturesque villages. A roundtrip cycling tour on Texel, the largest of the Dutch North Sea islands. A tip: Use the well signposted Thijsse route (about 40 km. long) and visit the seal sanctuary station EcoMare.

Day 4 (Tue)

The island of Texel – the island of Terschelling, a sailing day lasting about 5 – 6 hours

Your destination today is the island of Terschelling. The pretty small villages on the island have retained much of their old charm.

Day 5 (Wed)

The island of Terschelling: roundtrip cycling tour (10-40 km)

Terschelling offers a lot: nature and culture, 70 km. cycling tracks and 4 beautiful small villages. West-Terschelling is the largest village on the island with many shops and pubs. The landmark of the island can already be seen well from a distance, the 400 year old lighthouse "Brandaris". It is also very well worth seeing the heathland "De Boschplaat". It captivates with its mud, beaches and dunes. With a bit of luck you might even see a number of ducks, black-winged stilts and large colonies of spoonbills and great black-backed gulls.

Day 6 (Thu)

The island of Terschelling – the island of Vlieland or alternatively the Province of Friesland

In the morning the MARE FAN FRYSLÂN seeks to reach Vlieland – a truly natural island – but this depends upon the wind and the currents. The smallest island with just one village and about 1,100 islanders is car-free. The beach is just 100 m from the harbour. From the highest natural point in the Dutch North Sea islands, the dune “Vuurboetsduin”, you have a fantastic view over a number of islands, the North Sea and the mudflats. An alternative for today: a sailing trip to the south-western part of the Province of Friesland with a roundtrip cycling tour.

Day 7 (Fri)

The island of Vlieland or the Province of Friesland – the return journey to Amsterdam

Today the MARE FAN FRYSLAN will sail you back to Amsterdam.

Day 8 (Sat)

Amsterdam

Disembarkation by 10:00 am. A beautiful journey full of new experiences has come to an end.

We always reserve the right to alter the itinerary and the program. It may not be possible to reach all of the West-Frisian Islands because of weather conditions. The MARE FAN FRYSLAN will then undertake a sailing cruise through the IJsselmeer instead. In all cases, the crew will discuss all possibilities for cycling + sailing day by day.
